Join us as we take a SPECIAL COMMEMORATIVE PHOTOGRAPH in front of the historic Wilder building immediately following the ceremonial program under the tent. All members of the Masonic Family present are encouraged to be part of this unique photo opp.

Attractions for children include a petting zoo, a bubble table, tattoos, noodle necklaces, and more. The model railroad room is always of interest to enthusiasts of every age.

Really great reasonably-priced summertime food will be available including: hot dogs, hamburgers, wonderful baked potatoes, sensational waffles, delicious chocolate covered strawberries, old-fashioned cotton candy, and more.

Come for a day of fun for the whole family. And by coming, you will make the day more special for the people who live at the Wallingford and Newtown campuses of Masonicare.

An ageless commitment to caring.
